

Henley Aloian

aloian.h@husky.neu.edu

henleyaloian.com

(813)-503-4524

Education

Northeastern University, Boston, MA

BFA in Studio Art, expected by May 2021

Minor: Graphic Design

School of the Museum of Fine Arts (Tufts University), Boston, MA

Supplementary education required for a BFA in Studio Art

Relevant Coursework: Animation Basics, The Animated Short, Digital Foundations, Drawing for Animation, Introduction to Sound Design, Stop-Motion, Graphic Design, Typography

Berkeley Preparatory School, Tampa, FL

Diploma awarded Spring 2016

Honors/Activities: president of the sequential arts club, graduate of the Global Scholars special diploma program

Experience

2D Artist/Animator, The Lunz Group, Lakeland, FL (June 2020 – present)

- Main 2D animator for several full-length mixed media animated shorts revolving around the core principles of the company
- Background/character design concept artist for animated shorts

Assistant/Lead Art Teacher, Artists of Tomorrow Camp, Tampa, FL (June 2018 – July 2018)

- Taught children ages 7-14 about various visual art mediums, helping them create art pieces each week for display in a gallery (assistant teacher for the first three weeks of the camp, lead art teacher for all of the weeks following)

Volunteer Camp Counselor, Fleming Fine Arts Camp, Berkeley Preparatory School, Tampa, FL (July 2015)

- Taught children ages 4-14 about the fine arts, including dance, music, and painting/drawing
- Helped students use their artistic abilities to create and perform their own musical for their families at the end of the camp

Skills

Adobe (Photoshop, After Effects, Premiere, Audition, InDesign, Illustrator)

Microsoft Office (Word, PowerPoint, OneNote, Excel)

Unity (beginning knowledge)

Animation and sound design

Traditional 2D art (acrylic, oil, and watercolor painting, charcoal and graphite illustration)